This experience has challenged her thinking and the level of how to apply her skills to the workplace to improve the company performance.

Understanding the foundational purpose of where a therapist fits in in the chain of the health and wellness sector, Michelle has worked with well-respected companies and individual professionals.

Her approach is one that encompasses all of the technical knowledge with a relaxing and soothing touch. Because of her dedication and love for the beauty industry she has gained the credibility wherever she works. A true master of all services offered. All of your skin care needs can be met simply by putting your face in Michelle's hands.

SKIN IS OUR PASSION!

Your skin is your body's largest organ, and many factors impact your health. Internal factors such as genetics, aging, hormones, and conditions such as diabetes affect your skin.

When your skin is healthy, its layers work hard to protect themselves. But when compromised, the skin's ability to protect itself is impaired.

We have designed the best approach to improving your skin's health and to support your skin in maintaining its protective role.

Leave your skin drama in the hands of our skin specialists on your holiday and you will leave our spa feeling Revived and Rejuvenated.

M.E.L.A HYPERPIGMENTATION FACE TREATMENT

The unique powerclay formula used in the M.E.L.A. resurfacing treatments is a powerful hyperpigmentation treatment designed to reduce the accumulation of epidermally located melanin. It effectively inhibits the enzymatic activity of tyrosinase, whilst stimulating epidermal differentiation and therefore accelerates epidermal cellular turnover causing the removal of already formed melanin pigment. Due to the innovative, highly effective mode of action, significant visible results are obtained with minimal risk.

With different protocols, we combine a prescription programme. The strength and depth of the products are controlled by your physician, based on application technique and the number of layers applied during the skin resurfacing procedure. Combined with other treatment therapies, your skin feels bright and healthy.
